MANY EASTER MARRIAGES

Mrs. Dalzell's Tea in Honor of Mrs. Hastings Yesterday.

Large Reception and Musical Next Friday at the Austro-Hungarian Legation.

With the bright and joyous Easter tide, the budding of leaves and the blossoming of the flowers, comes the bright and joyous creature who is really the advance guard of the summer girl.

She is going to be very much in evidence during the coming week in all her Easter finery at teas and dances, which will fill up the time most acceptably after the dullness of the past forty days. What with weddings, concerts and college boys dancing attendance at her side, the Easter butterfly will have enough of gaiety and admiration to turn her pretty head.

The well-filled social calendar for this week includes—for Monday—A 5 o'clock tea by Mrs. McKim, in honor of the Yale Banjo and Glee Clubs. A dinner to young people by ex-Senator and Mrs. Bruce. A dance by Mrs. Bowland. A dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hazeltine, in honor of Secretary and Mrs. Alger, and a dinner by Secretary J. Addison Porter to the Connecticut delegation.

Tuesday—A musicale by Mr. Trubert, second secretary of the French embassy. A dinner by Mrs. McLanahan, in honor of her guest, Miss de Peyster, of New York. The marriage of Miss Annie H. Cromwell to Ensign J. Hale Sypher, U. S. N., at Ascension Church, at noon. The marriage of Miss Mary B. Blackford and Lieut. Charles G. Sawtelle, Jr., U. S. cavalry, at Christ Church, West Washington, at noon.

Wednesday—The marriage of Miss Emily Clayton to Lieut. Griffin, U. S. A., at St. John's Church, at noon.

The marriage of Miss Kate McClelland to Mr. Frank C. Leitch, at St. Michael's, at Hamilton M. E. Church at noon.

An evening reception by Senator and Mrs. Wolcott.

Thursday—The marriage of Miss Carolyn McNulty to Mr. Edward Eides, of Newport.

Friday—The Austro-Hungarian minister and business attaché give a reception and musicale.

Mrs. Dalzell gave a very delightful tea yesterday afternoon, from 4 to 7 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Hastings, wife of Gen. Hastings, of Bermuda. Among those who assisted the hostess in receiving her guests were Miss Kitzmiller, Miss Hough, Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Westinghouse, Miss Catherine Bough and Mrs. Dunn. The drawing-rooms were attractively decorated with spring blossoms, and all sorts of tea dainties were served in the tea-room.

Among the guests were Mrs. and Miss Alger, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Seward and Miss Seward, of Albany, N. Y.; Mrs. Stanley Matthews, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Culkin, Miss Cassels, Mr. Harry Field, Dr. and Mrs. Radcliffe, Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Dingley, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Doherty, Mrs. Doherty, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Rhoads, Miss McGee and Mr. and Mrs. Henry, of Philadelphia.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Rose West to Mr. U. S. Grant Hoover, to occur on Wednesday evening, April 21, at St. Joseph's Church.

Mrs. Burrows, wife of Senator Burrows, has been quite ill all the past week with a bronchial cold.

Postmaster General Gary and his daughter, Mrs. Levering, who has been spending the week in Washington, left yesterday for Baltimore to spend the Easter holidays.

The Guild of St. Thomas' Church will give a musicale in the chapel, on the evening of Wednesday, April 21, upon which occasion the following artists have volunteered their services: Mrs. Philip Mauro, Mrs. Kitty Thompson-Berry, Miss Grace McCulloch, Miss Eleanor Shmonds, Miss Fanny Hare, Mr. Arthur D. Mayo, Mr. Sol. Munster, Mr. William D. McFarland, Mr. Charles E. Myers, Mr. Frederick Crosby, Mr. Henry Xander, and Miss Lily Wignall.

The affair promises to be of rare interest under the management of prominent young ladies of the guild. Miss Charlotte Adams, president; Miss Catlin, niece of Bishop Satterlee, secretary; Miss Beath, treasurer; with the Misses Butterworth, Miss Durant, Miss Hughes, Miss Reid, Miss Kittenhouse, and others of equal social prominence, on the committee of entertainment, Miss Durant acting as chairman.

Owing to the enthusiastic support of Mr. Crosby and others in the musical world, the success of the musicale is already assured, and the sum from the sale of tickets promises a rich harvest for the benefit of the church.

Too much praise cannot be awarded to the ladies in charge, who have worked industriously for the success of the entertainment, under the lead of Miss Adams and Miss Emma Washburn, of the board.

Miss Estha Gordon, daughter of Mr. Holdsworth, of West Washington, left Friday for a visit to Charlottesville, Va.

Mrs. Baden is spending the Easter season with her father, the Rev. Albert R. Reed, of Christ Church, West Washington.

Major and Mrs. F. I. Willis gave a most enjoyable soiree party at their beautiful residence, on N street, on Wednesday evening last.

The shadowgraph and the guessing at the identity portrayed by the different profiles furnished much amusement for the guests. The drawing-rooms and library were decorated with palms and carnations.

Prizes were awarded to the successful guessers, and were awarded by Miss Willis and Miss Andrews. Delightful refreshments were served and pretty flower favors were provided for all. Among the guests were Dr. Klein, Dr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Mrs. and Miss Hay, and many others.

The second regular meeting of the Entre Nous Euchre Club was held at the house of the Misses McIntyre, No. 815 Fifth street northeast, on Monday evening, April 12.

In the absence of Dr. King, Prof. Mangan presided. The first prizes were won by Mr. W. W. Winner and Miss McIntyre. The consolation prizes were awarded to Miss Laura Miller and Mr. Lynch.

The Mississippi Association met at Confederate Veterans' Hall, southeast corner of Eleventh and E streets northwest, on Wednesday evening last.

Mr. Walter Harrison read a short paper entitled, "How to Reach Capitalists to Aid in Developing the Natural Resources of the State."

Miss Pegram gave a beautiful piano selection, "The Palms," by Leybach, and Mrs. Harris a charming harp solo.

Major Patrick Henry of the Seventh and Mr. W. F. Love of the Sixth Congressional districts of Mississippi were honored guests of the evening.

Both of them made happy remarks, expressing great pleasure in meeting with Mississippians, and their gratification of the object of this social organization and added their names to the list of members.

An enjoyable birthday party was given by Mr. John H. Williams, to celebrate his twenty-first birthday, on Wednesday evening last. Among the guests were Prof. Smoot, Mr. Brayton, Mr. Greenfield, Mr. Bishop, Miss Mabel Case, Miss Clara Lotters, the Misses Rose and Gertrude Rehner, Miss Bertha Pierce, Miss Annie Shepherd, Miss Goldie Dennison, Miss Maggie Shepherd, Miss Eva Dennison, Miss Alberta Selby, Miss Ruth Burke, Miss Nettie Kope, Miss Clara Latham, Miss Bertha Pierce, Miss Katie Bishop, and Messrs. Ernest Hunt, Benjamin Greenfield, Luther Friday, Harry Fellingner, Avery Smoot, Harvey Brayton, M. W. Moore, Jr., Robert Hays, William Williams, George Steiner, George Moran, George Robertson, Daniel Robertson, John Allen, Rutherford Selby, James Bishop, Albert Hays, and Mrs. Pennington. Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Mechant, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. Shimer, Mr. Smith, and others.

The board of lady managers of the Garfield Memorial Hospital have chartered the steamer Maclellan for an excursion and plank-shed dinner on Easter Monday.

The greatest favor we ever did you

was when we built this big building and extended our facilities until they included every item of Housefurnishing. You've thanked us—thanked us in the most practical way—by taking advantage of the opportunities we offer. They're many—and they are great.

You find that we are cheaper for the best qualities. We want you to always feel that when you buy here you're buying in a friendly store—where the best the market affords is put before you.

Think of it

When you want to buy Mattings. We go after the Mattings where they are made, and the selection we make is from the entire product. We are bound to get the cheapest grades—the newest patterns—and the largest variety.

Think of it

When you want to buy a Refrigerator. A lot of advertising doesn't make a good Refrigerator. Study the construction of the lines we carry, and you'll see we have picked the most desirable kinds. Lots of styles to choose from. Cheap as good Refrigerators can be sold.

Think of it

When you are buying a Baby Carriage. You can soon see why we have so about our line. The handsomest—and every carriage is one we can guarantee. Another case of lowest prices for the best.

Think of it

When you need anything about the house—It's true in everything.

CASH OR CREDIT!

HOUSE & HERRMANN,

Liberal Furnishers.

Corner 7th and I Sts.

April 19, for the benefit of this most worthy and appealing charity.

The trip will be diversified by music and dancing on board, with the Marine Band in attendance—an important consideration with young people.

The boat leaves her wharf at 3:30 p. m., returning between 9 and 10 o'clock. Tickets, $2, including dinner, to be purchased from the board of lady managers only.

It is the annual custom of the board to furnish an entertainment in favor of the hospital fund that will attract patronage from society generally, and as the sale of tickets is confined to the managers, no objectionable element is allowed the privilege, thereby rendering the affair one of exceptional social enjoyment.

The excursion will extend down the river as far as Indian Head, returning to Marshall Hall for dinner.

The board of lady managers of the hospital include: Mrs. John A. Logan, president; vice-president, Mrs. Justice Harlan; Mrs. Senator Burrows, Mrs. H. A. Willard, Mrs. Justice Brewer, Mrs. Admiral English, Mrs. William Pitt-Kellogg; secretary, Mrs. E. B. Rutherford; assistant secretary, Miss Jennie Turnbull; corresponding secretary, Miss S. Edgley, and treasurer, Mrs. T. L. Tulloch.

On the list of active members of the board are: Mrs. Russell Alger, Mrs. Senator Culkin, Mrs. Senator Pottinger, Mrs. J. Ford Thompson, Mrs. Bishop Hays, Mrs. J. E. Somers, Mrs. Truesdell, Mrs. Simon Wolf, Mrs. Thomas Wilson, seventy-five in all among leading residents.

The last ladies' day of the season at Columbia Athletic Club will be tomorrow, from 2 o'clock until 6. A charming musical program will be given, and dancing will also be much enjoyed.

Mrs. Annie T. Flint, of Boston, who has been sojourning at 1719 H street, left on Saturday for her home in Boston.

The Continental Chapter, D. A. R., will hold its regular meeting at The Elmore on Easter Monday, at 8 p. m. Col. Charles P. Lincoln will deliver the address and Madam Currier will have charge of the music. All friends invited.

Much interest is being manifested in the children's opera, "Taffy and Old Munch," which will be produced Tuesday afternoon at the Columbia Theater by the company, Professor Jerome Hopkins, who has displayed a wonderful knowledge in the handling of children. The cast will include a number of clever little folks, led by the gifted child prima donna, Marie Howe, who has already sustained with professional excellence leading roles in "Pinafore" and the "Pirates of Penzance," and created the part of the queen in Professor Howard's "Jack, the Giant Killer," which was produced by the children of Washington with such success last year. Her acting is graceful and her voice sweet and true.

The remainder of the cast and chorus are made up of unusually talented children and the rehearsals promise a pleasing performance.

The "bean social" given by the ladies of George H. Thomas, W. R. C., G. A. R., last evening, was a success both socially and financially. The beans were plentiful and excellent, and the comrades, who never grow weary eating the "army bean," did full justice to the refreshments served. The program was of a length and character to be enjoyed by all.

"The Soldiers," a recitation by Miss Irene Bane, was beautifully rendered and elicited a full round of applause. The Capital Hill Quartette, composed of Will, Emma, Stanley, and Dorothy Houchen, rendered enthusiastic applause, and they favored the audience with an encore. A piano duet by Miss Dorothy Houchen and Miss Lillian Dorsey was justly appreciated and enjoyed.

Miss Grace Houchen favored the audience with a recitation, receiving hearty applause. The hit of the evening was "The Flag," a recitation by Bracynth Gunder, a little niece of four summers. As an encore she recited "The Yellow Birdies." As this was her first appearance before

WIMODAUGHSIS NOTES.

Miss Ada Louise Townsend, and her pupils gave an interesting elocution recital at Winmodaughis last Tuesday evening. The parlors were well filled with appreciative guests.

Winmodaughis, with the Excelsior Club, will entertain the District Federation of Women's Clubs on Tuesday next from 8 to 10 p. m. Gentlemen friends are invited with the women club members. Refreshments will be served informally, and a program of music and recitations will be rendered.

The reception party will be composed of Mrs. A. M. Hamilton, president of Winmodaughis; Mrs. Carrie Kent, president of the Excelsior Club; Mrs. M. S. Lockwood, president District Federation of Women's Clubs; the three past presidents of Winmodaughis, Miss Jeannette Bradley-Post, Mrs. Ruth G. D. Havens, and Mrs. Emma A. Gillett, and Mrs. Dickerson, of the board of Winmodaughis.

The Saturday outing of the Geological Section of Winmodaughis, composed of both gentlemen and lady members, is a popular affair. Prof. George Merrill, of the Columbian University, is in charge of the Saturday outings, which leave the classroom at 4:15, and are enjoyed by all. The topography class, which also consists of ladies and gentlemen, meets on Mondays and Tuesdays, at 7 o'clock p. m.
